Thank you for joining us in our worship of our Gracious God!

If you are our guest today, Welcome!
Please introduce yourself to Pastor Brian at the end of the service.
If you have questions, please ask those sitting around you.
Please join us again. God loves you just as you are.

Please call Pastor Brian if you, or a loved one, are sick, depressed hospitalized, or have concerns for yourself or your family.

Churches are asked to start planning on developing plans to have ride shares and car pools to allow people to attend services which are not at their church. Also, whenever offerings are made at any Covenant worship service, you can designate that your offering go to your church by putting that church's name on the check and/or envelope.

- SISU shelter and care for homeless youth needs have changed and they have requested the following: Gallon Ziploc bags; Laundry detergent or pods; bleach; Fabulous; Trash bags; Windex; Toilet cleaner and bottled water. More info at www.sisuyouth.org. Any and all donations would be greatly appreciated.

Ananias' Theological Thoughts

It is nice to be able to write an article for all of you. You might have heard that My Big Guy had a computer crisis. I offered to do the writing for him, but I didn't realize how much he has to change my spelling. I was kind of embarrassed, but then I remembered that I'm an Olde English Bulldogge, and there are spelling variations between your American version of English and my more proper style.

My Big Guy and I are still getting used to Oklahoma. With the cold spell that hit the country, we were getting information from people back in Michigan and Wisconsin about it being so far below zero. I remember those days and having to go outside when it was 40 below zero. You learn how to do what you have to do really quickly.

One of the things I'm really liking is your BBQ. Can you talk My Big Guy into sharing more of that with me? I'd be very appreciative.

With Licks and Love,
Ananias Bulldogge Campbell
