Ananias' Theological Thoughts

The season of Lent is coming up, and with it, people tend to think about what they will give up. My Big Guy is working on something that would allow you to give up something for each of the 40 days of Lent that would help other people. But you can also take on something, add a spiritual discipline during Lent. It can also be a time to intentionally spend more time reading the Bible or being in prayer.

With Licks and Love,
Ananias Bulldogge Campbell
